

LOOKING FOR 2 VALLEY FEMMEHOOD PROGRAM ORGANIZERS

Somos Familia Valle (SFV), founded on September 6 of 2014 as a grassroots movement, is now a San Fernando Valley community-based non-profit organization. Created and led by local, low-income, first-generation college students who are trans and queer people of color, Somos Familia Valle's mission is to support, empower, train, and mobilize trans and queer people, immigrants, our families, and allies for racial, gender, environmental, and economic justice. We organize for intersectional trans and queer justice and liberation through transformative dialogue, education, advocacy, civic engagement, and community organizing. We are an all volunteer-run organization.
